

TROOP 23
50th Anniversary!
U.S. Grant Pilgrimage
April 23-25, 2004
Galena, IL

General Description:

The U.S. Grant Pilgrimage is a weekend full of activities and fun for everyone. There will be a bucket brigade, blind tent pitch, crafters, obstacle course, museum tours, big parade, trail hike, tug-o-war, and other ongoing activities. If we have enough scouts, we will be able to march in the parade. We will be staying at the Palace Campground, which is few miles from the town of Galena.

Departure Information:

We will be leaving at 6:30 PM SHARP on Friday April 23rd, from the Community Church parking lot. Be at the church no later than 6:00 PM to load your gear into your assigned car and get ready for the drive to Galena. Driver list and car signup will be on April 15th. No changes will be made at the parking lot!

Permission Slips:

Permission slips and fees are due no later than the night of the April 8th Troop meeting at the Community Presbyterian Church. Forms are available on the web and will be available at the troop meeting on April 8th.
